Geneva wines win four medals at Belgian wine competition

One gold and three silver medals were awarded to Geneva wine makers at the international event known as the Concours Mondial de Bruxelles.

Some 7,000 wines and spirits were tasted by a jury comprised of industry professionals from nearly 40 countries at the recent Concours Mondial de Bruxelles held from April 23 to 25, 2010 in Palermo, Sicily.

The Geneva winners were La Cave de Genève – which produces “Baccarat Blanc de Blancs Chardonnay” (gold medalist) and silver medalists “Côté Soleil”, a white blend (2008) and “Le Trésor”, a Chardonnay (2008) – and Domaine du Paradis which makes silver medalist “Pont des Soupirs Blanc”, a Viognier (2009).
